

Report of the Tax Collector

As of November 30, 2023

- November deposits were $982.02. The Hebron total was $177.96, made up of $167.89 of current taxes and $10.07 of interest. Lebanon total was $804.06, made up of $790.54 of current taxes and $13.52 of interest.
- Year to date collection totals is $133,204.51.
 - Hebron: $58,833.46
 - Lebanon: $74,371.05
- The updated transfer report has been received from Lebanon and new property owners have been billed for the January installment. The transfer report from Hebron has not been received.
- Escrow company requests for the January payments due have been processed.
- Attorney Adam Cohen continues to work on the delinquent properties that were referred to him for collection. The tax auction for the two (2) remaining delinquent properties is tentatively scheduled for January 10, 2024, at 10am at the Lebanon Fire Safety Complex. Typically, as the auction date approaches, the delinquent owners pay in full to halt the sale. To check the status of any tax sales, please visit www.cttaxsales.com. Information is updated regularly.

Respectfully submitted,

Eileen Curtin

Amston Lake District

Tax Collector